The club opens a RCDE Academy in Stockholm

16/11/2018

RCD Espanyol de Barcelona opens the RCDE Academy Stockholm, in this sense the club will be strategically located in the north of Europe, in a country like Sweden, a reference in Scandinavia and with a growing potential in football.

This summer, the entity has already developed training sessions in Stockholm, Football Camps service, with a high level of acceptance. The club has signed an agreement for three years.

Sergi Angulo will be the responsible director instructed by RCD Espanyol de Barcelona in the training centre of the Swedish capital. It is also planned that the members of this newly academy will make a stay in Barcelona at the Dani Jarque training facilities with the official club coaches.

With this new RCDE Academy Stockholm, the club already has centres in Ajman (United Arab Emirates), Baghdad (Iraq), Algiers and Blida (Algeria), HJK (Barcelona), Saitama (Japan), Los Angeles, New Jersey and Miami (United States), Hunan and Yunnan (China).
